

LORO Balcony Drains

An extensive range of drainage products with solutions for many different drainages problems on balconies and terraces. Hot-dip galvanised steel or copper individual or direct drains DN 50 - DN 100, additional coating, with connecting collar or clamping flange (fixed and loose flange),with/without thermal insulation. Also available as all-welded construction with floorheight discharge for connection from balcony to balcony.

Range of application:

Balconies in residential buildings, hotels, terraces

